COMPANY BACKGROUND

banerect portable displays were established in 1996 by Wellingtonian Tony McKendry. He designed one of the worlds first portable bannerstands (banerect Classic) and set up sales and distribution throughout the western world.

banerect specialise in high quality bannerstands, flags, and their award winning* dye sublimation fabric printing. Customer 'value for money' is achieved by marketing through the banerect web site. This reduction in operating costs means you not only get the absolute finest portable displays in the world, but also at the most competitive prices.

banerect has just one aim, to help you "Show Tell 'N' Sell Your Way To Success". Everything they do is designed to make sure your brand, message, and visual marketing maximises your investment.

* Voted New Zealand's
best Large Format
printer at the 2009
